Totem Pole Playhouse “Shenandoah”

Wednesday,
June 24, 2015

From Towson U.M. Church:
bus departs at 11:30a and
returns at 7:30p

From Oak Crest Village:
bus departs at 11:00a and
returns 8:00p

Please be on time :)

The start of the summer means it's time once again to relax and journey to Caledonia State Park for professional theater. You can expect Broadway quality in a pristine, wooded setting.

SHENANDOAH is a musical saga, moving and dramatic, of a strong-willed Virginia farmer, Charlie Anderson, a widower, trying to keep his large family neutral as the Civil War rages. Their story is a heart-warming and heart-rending portrayal that left wounds on the land and its people for generations.

A thrilling ending. Don't miss this one!

Lunch is next at Hickory Bridge Farm restaurant for our delicious family-style dinner, which includes beverage and dessert; located at the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains in a beautifully restored Pennsylvania barn.

Cost & Payment Information:

- $85 per person, which includes
Reserved seats at the Totem Pole Playhouse
A delicious farm style dinner at Hickory Bridge Farm
Taxes and meal gratuity
Round trip transportation
- Please make your check payable to:
“Senior Adult Council;” deadline is May 22, 2015.
- (include your phone number & email address)
- Mail to: Dee Matson

Autumn Leaf Train Ride Wilmington, Delaware

Saturday, October 24,
2015

From Towson U.M. Church:
Bus departs at 10:00a and returns approx. 6:45p

From Oak Crest Village:
Bus departs at 10:30a and returns approx. 6:15p

First stop is lunch:

- At the Old Country Buffet in Newark, Delaware

Second stop is at the Wilmington & Western Railroad:

- For a 2 ½ hour old time train ride through the colorful autumn countryside from Wilmington to Hockessin, Delaware, traveling across bridges, winding through narrow rock cuts, and whistling past homes in the beautiful valley of the Red Clay Creek. We will go back in time when the steam locomotive ruled the rails in antique passenger coaches pulled by a coal-burning steam locomotive or an early-generation diesel locomotive. We will disembark in Hockessin for a layover to browse the local shops before we re-board the train for our return trip.

Cost & Payment Information:

- The cost is $65 per person, which includes transportation, lunch, train ride, and taxes and tips.
- The deadline to make your reservation is September 1.
- Please make your check payable to:
